

Emilio Sánchez

Emilio Sánchez Vicario Foundation

Supporting Sports
and Education

The ES Foundation's mission is to enhance personal development and social skills of individuals through sports and education. Aware of the positive values of sports and tennis in particular, former professional tennis player Emilio Sánchez Vicario created the ES Foundation in 2010 to promote activities and programs to aid young athletes.

ES Foundation Actions

Activities for People with Disabilities

To promote tennis as a confidence-builder and way to enhance overall fitness and well-being among people who are physically disabled, through the organization of tennis events and other activities.

The Emilio Sánchez Vicario Foundation, in collaboration with Quico Tur (Spain's #1 Wheelchair Tennis player, ranked #20 in the world), will initiate activities to promote sports awareness among individuals with a disability. These activities include wheelchair tennis events and tennis practices for people with physical disabilities.

November 3rd, 2009
Presentation of the book: “Dream to Win”
Emilio Sánchez Vicario

The ES Forum

Creation of the ES Forum, a discussion center of important and current social issues where personalities from the sports, arts and entertainment world share their experiences with the audience, always with the objective of raising social awareness about those issues.

February 18th, 2010
What is the Future of Tennis in Spain?
Pedro J. Ramírez

The ES Foundation will continue nourishing the ES Forum by inviting first-rate personalities to share their experience and knowledge.

May 20th, 2010
Overcoming Adversity
Quico Tur and Álvaro Urquijo

June 30th, 2010
Brands Triumph
Gabriele Burgio and Luis Mediero

September 27th, 2010
The Stage Fright
Miguel Bosé and Carlos Moya

October 7th, 2010
From Tennis Coach to Life Coach
 Jim Loehr

October 22nd, 2010
Youth, Violence and Media
 Christian Molina

November 2nd, 2010
Sport to Live Better and Longer - Open Valencia
 Juan Antonio Samaranch Salisachs, Gabriel Masfurrroll, Cristóbal Grau
 and Dr. Antonio Nieto

January 5th, 2011
Cities and Sports - Abama (Tenerife)
 Alberto Bernabé, Miguel Ángel Santos,
 Oriol Montal

February 17th, 2011
The Art of Courage
 Dña. Esperanza Aguirre, Luis F. Esplá and Feliciano López.

April 1st, 2011
And if You Get Injured, What?
 Rubén de la Red, Alberto Berasategui and doctor A. Ruiz Cotorro

May 2nd, 2011
Early Winners
 Rafa Nadal, Sergio "Kun"
 Agüero and Alberto Ruiz-
 Gallardón

Athletic Events

Organization of international tennis events to promote sporting values such as respect, commitment, effort, tolerance and friendship among young competitors.

The international events include an ITF Junior tournament and two Tennis Europe tournaments, with full hospitality provided by the Foundation to make international competition more accessible to young athletes. The ES Foundation also celebrates the Nations Cup, giving players from various countries the opportunity to experience international competition while representing their country. During this tournament, various activities were also conducted by the Foundation to teach and encourage collaboration and support among the young athletes.

Scholarships and Aid for Athletes

Assist young athletes with financial difficulties to support their athletic development and academic education.

The ES Foundation believes that financial difficulty should not be an impediment to developing tennis talent. From children who desire to learn the sport, to talented players who need help in their development, the Foundation aims to support individuals in need.

Supporting Tennis and Education Programs

Collaboration with centers committed to athlete development through high performance training combined with academic education.

The ES Foundation will support and collaborate with institutions committed to providing athletes with the right environment and tools to develop both as competitors and well-rounded individuals.

Formative Activities

Organization of courses, seminars and conferences emphasizing the positive values of sports.

These activities include psychology courses conducted by Dr. Jim Loehr, world-renowned mental coach to the champions, as well as tennis coach courses from beginner to competition level, and other activities that help to spread innovation and quality in the sports field.

Collaboration with other Foundations

Facilitating cooperation with other foundations and associations aimed to the personal development and social support of individuals through sports and education.

The ES Foundation will continue building partnerships with other organizations to launch future collaborative projects.

Resources

The ES Foundation is financed through donations and collaboration agreements for the projects of the Foundation.

To make a contribution, to sponsor any project or to become a member of the Foundation, contact us at:

fundacion@fundacionemiliosanchezv.org

For personal, corporate or anonymous donations, bank transfers are accepted to the Foundation's following account, indicating the particular project for which your contribution is intended and, where applicable, the personal ID information:

CCC: 2100-1658-29-0200204212

IBAN: ES35-2100-1658-29-0200204212

BIC/SWIFT: CAIXESBBXXX

Media Coverage

The activities of the ES Foundation have received wide coverage in the media, including television, print, radio, the internet, and social networks.

In the national and regional media, the activities of the ES Foundation have been covered by television channels such as Telecinco, Telemadrid, TV3, Canal33, Marca TV and Intereconomía TV. For print, the newspapers El Mundo, Marca and Expansión, and the magazines Hola, Semana and Lecturas, have featured the work of the Foundation.

The ES Foundation has also hit the airways on radio stations Cadena Ser, Onda Cero, Cadena Cope, GestRadio, Onda Madrid, Radio Marca, RNE Valencia and Radio 9.

Because of the variety of ES Foundation events and activities, specialized magazines including Grand Slam, Tennis World, Expansión, Cinco Días, Negocio y Estilo, Empresa Exterior, El Economista, Estrategias, Dirigir en Femenino, Emprendedores, Negocios, Capital Humano, Gentleman, Noticias Médicas, Deporte Adaptado, Marca, As, Eurosport, Spain Sports Network and Managing Sport have reported on ES Foundation, it's youth and programs.

On the web, Eurosport.es, El Mundo.es (which transmitted on-line some of the ES Forums), Marca.com, ElPais.es, CincoDias.es, ElMundoDeportivo.es, Sport.es, PeriodistaDigital.com, Sportyou.es, ElConfidencial.com, 20minutos.es, ElSemanalDigital.com, Adn.es, Hola.es, Terra.es and Msn.es have all featured ES Foundation's activities. ES is also active on social networks to reach out to the young athletes and their friends, using Emilio Sánchez Vicario's blog, as well as Facebook, Twitter, and social networks of the organizations related with ES Foundation Events and participants.

Quico Tur, Tatí Rascón y Emilio Sánchez Vicario realizan una exhibición.

TENIS EN LA CIUDAD DE LA RAQUETA
Emilio Sánchez dedica su Foro a la autoayuda
 Con Quico Tur y Álvaro Urquijo · Asisten Jaime Lissavetzky y Alejandro Blanco

FORO EN LA CIUDAD DE LA RAQUETA
 El segundo Foro Emilio Sánchez Vicario en la Ciudad de la Raqueta tuvo como tema "Autoayuda: siempre tú". Tatí Rascón, Quico Tur y Álvaro Urquijo, cantante del grupo Los Secretos, como ponentes con Quico Tur, primer tenista profesional español en silla de ruedas, y Álvaro Urquijo, cantante del grupo Los Secretos.
 Quico Tur sufrió un accidente de moto el día de Navidad de 2006, que le confinó en una silla de ruedas. "Me sentí como si volviese a nacer. Había que empezar todo de nuevo, pero me centré en lo que podía hacer y no en lo que no podía".
 Quico ha conseguido ser tres veces campeón de España, cinco vencedor del Masters Nacional, ser parolímpico en Atenas 2004 y Pekín 2008 y convertirse en profesional, contando con dos patrocinadores personales.
 Álvaro Urquijo hizo frente al fallecimiento primero de dos compañeros, Conito y Pedro Díaz, en serios accidentes de coche, y luego de su hermano y líder del grupo, Enrique.
 En su caso, Álvaro señaló que lo que le ayudó a continuar con la vida fue el apoyo de su familia, que le hizo comprender que su labor era importante para otras personas. Aconsejó "siempre tú", "tú eres tú", "siempre tú", "tú eres tú", "siempre tú", "tú eres tú", "siempre tú".
 Emilio Sánchez Vicario señaló que para vencer la adversidad son fundamentales los valores de superación, entrega, tener una visión y luchar por ella y fuerza interior, propios de la actividad deportiva. Todos que la considera una actividad formativa total, participarán en el Foro, ponentes de todos los ámbitos. Condujo el acto Miguel Díaz, presidente de la Federación de Tenis de Madrid.
 En el acto participaron el secretario de Estado para el Deporte, Jaime Lissavetzky, que le abrió ponderando el deporte como factor de integración y ciudadanía, y Alejandro Blanco, presidente del Comité Olímpico Español, que lo cerró glorificando los ejemplos de Quico y Álvaro.
 Emilio y Quico, junto a Tatí Rascón realizaron una exhibición junto a niños, en la que Emilio jugó con Quico sentado.

Headquarters

CIUDAD DELA RAQUETA

 academia
SÁNCHEZ-CASAL
barcelona

ES Fundation Headquarters
"Ciudad de la Raqueta"
Calle Monasterio de El Paular 2,
Montecarmelo - 28049, Madrid

Office of Support:
Academia Sánchez-Casal, Barcelona
Autovía de Castelldefels km. 191
08820 El Prat de LL. - Barcelona

fundacion@fundacionemiliosanchezv.org

www.fundacionemiliosanchezv.org

Colaboradores:

ORBYT.

